CANDIDATE CONFIRMATION

I hereby confirm that I am allowing my name to stand for appointment as a Director of the Supply Chain Canada National Board of Directors.

I confirm that I have read the duties and responsibilities of a Supply Chain Canada Board Director, agree to the time commitment involved, understand that if I am included on the Slate of Directors that the summary of my competency profile will be shared with the members, and have the support of my employer (if applicable) to take up the position. I understand that I will be required to go through an interview process with the Leadership Development Committee.

I agree to undergo a third-party background check if it is determined that I may be included on the Slate of Directors. Such inclusion is subject to the background check being successful.

I am aware that candidate credentials will be verified with the relevant educational institutions and the relevant Provincial/Territorial Institutes (if applicable), and I will be asked to provide personal and professional references.

BACKGROUND

On September 10, 2020, Supply Chain Canada will hold its Annual General Meeting (AGM) in St. John's, Newfoundland. At this meeting, the members of the Supply Chain Canada National Board of Directors will be approved.

The Board will be comprised of 7-9 (seven to nine) voting Directors plus the President & CEO ex officio. There is one Director position to be filled. This position is open to members and non-members. For this particular vacancy, the Leadership Development Committee will be looking for candidates with senior experience in the area of finance and a CPA or equivalent designation..

As per Supply Chain Canada's governance structure, Board Directors may serve for a term of up to three years.

A position on the National Board of Directors offers individuals an opportunity to contribute to the mission, vision and strategic direction of Supply Chain Canada and to contribute to the advancement of the supply chain management profession. All Expressions of Interest will be held in strict confidence and will be confirmed upon receipt.
