

Location: Toronto, ON

Position: Director, Client Services

File Number: 2583

Our client is a rapidly growing 3rd party logistics company focused on domestic and international ecommerce fulfillment, particularly in the Health & Beauty category

The Director of Client Services will provide overall leadership in defining, implementing and managing the client management strategy and ongoing support operations. The key functions in this role are a) Inbound Customer Service, b) Account Management and c) Client Project and Change Management

You will have a proven ability to build relationships with medium to large retailer Clients. Experience in Onboarding and change management. A strong background in B2C ecommerce and 3rd party Logistics.

A strong compensation plan will accompany this opportunity.

Please apply via our website: www.reimer.ca and quote the File Number above.