

Purchasing Agent

We are looking for a Purchasing Agent to join our Regina office. The successful candidate will be responsible purchasing of a wide variety of supplies, equipment, services and other goods and/or materials for the corporation. You will also provide functional supervision and technical guidance to subordinate staff.

Building a culture of leadership development is front of mind for SGI and we believe that leaders are developed through all levels of the organization. Leadership culture development will transform how we work with customers, partners and each other. We're aiming for a culture that focuses on new strengths, balanced with some of what's always been important to our success. The successful individual for this role will be a team player that buys into this mindset and embody SGI's vision, missions and values.

Requirements

Candidates must bring the education and experience to succeed in this unique opportunity — after all, we're counting on you. We are looking for candidates who have a two-year diploma majoring in Business Administration or Commerce PLUS a Diploma in Supply Management from the Supply Chain Management Association of Canada.

Why SGI?

Because SGI is a great place to work. We value integrity, caring and innovation. We have an intentional culture that promotes trust and participation in a way that encourages employees to bring their hearts and minds to their work. Part of the SGI experience that our employees value most lies within the community comprised of their coworkers. The employee community isn't the only reason our people stay at SGI; we also offer a wide range of benefits and invest in career development to meet the needs of our employees. We embrace diversity, recognizing and celebrating our differences and our similarities. Our careers are as diverse as our employees.
