

Purchasing Consultant

We are looking for a Purchasing Consultant to join our Regina office. The successful candidate will be responsible for coordinating and overseeing the centralized corporate purchasing program for SGI and its regional operations. In this role you will provide advice, guidance and support to management related to corporate purchasing practices and procedures and ensure goods and services are provided in a cost-effective, efficient and timely manner to the corporation.

SGI is aiming to be an agile organization that has clear and transparent communication paired with effective collaboration and accountability throughout the organization. The successful individual for this role will be a team player that buys into this mindset and embody SGI's vision, missions and values.

Requirements

Candidates must bring the education and experience to succeed in this unique opportunity — after all, we're counting on you. We are looking for candidates who have a four-year degree from an accredited post-secondary educational institution in a relevant field of study such as Business, a Supply Chain Management Professional designation or a Supply Management Training diploma from the Supply Chain Management Association of Canada.

Candidates should also have at least five years' experience with increasing responsibility in purchasing. Alternative combinations of relevant education and experience may also be considered.

Why SGI?

Because SGI is a great place to work. We value integrity, caring and innovation. We have an intentional culture that promotes trust and participation in a way that encourages employees to bring their hearts and minds to their work. Part of the SGI experience that our employees value most lies within the community comprised of their coworkers. The employee community isn't the only reason our people stay at SGI; we also offer a wide range of benefits and invest in career development to meet the needs of our employees. We embrace diversity, recognizing and celebrating our differences and our similarities. Our careers are as diverse as our employees.
