Why FCC?

At FCC, we're proud to be 100% invested in Canadian agriculture and food. As a federal Crown corporation, we provide financing, knowledge resources and business management software to over 103,000 customers nationwide.

Here's what you can expect when you join our team:

- Competitive total rewards packages: market-aligned and performance-based salary and incentive programs, flexible and comprehensive group benefit and savings plans, and well-being support through benefits and wellness programs
- Purpose-driven work: We build strong relationships, share knowledge and support the people who feed the world
- Growth: Learning and development opportunities to help you thrive
- Hybrid work options

How you'll make an impact

In this role, you'll apply your vendor management expertise to lead the strategic management of suppliers and service providers, ensuring FCC secures the best possible value.

As a relationship builder and skilled negotiator, you'll work with internal leaders and external vendors to translate our resourcing needs into clear contract specifications, support RFx activities, monitor vendor performance and play a key role in vendor governance.

Bringing your analytical mind and clear communication style to the table, you'll use supply chain best practices to manage risk, boost performance and help our vendors bring fresh ideas and innovative solutions to FCC.

What you'll do

- Build and maintain strong, professional relationships with vendors while serving as the primary point of accountability and escalation
- Define, monitor, and manage vendor performance against KPIs and SLAs to ensure service quality, accountability, and continuous improvement
- Oversee vendor contracts across their lifecycle to ensure commercial compliance, value realization, and effective renewals or amendments.
- Identify, assess, and mitigate vendor-related risks while ensuring adherence to organizational policies, regulatory requirements, and governance standards
